Summary:

Eddie and Richie go to McDonalds. But tragedy strikes when Eddie in turn pulls out his money... And Richie, of course, is inappropriate.

Eddie and Rich had gone to McDonalds for a snack. This wasn't Eddie's idea for a healthy snack though, mind you--he felt very strongly about making that known. No, this was just something cheap and quick for them to eat and talk through. Not something he'd eat without Richie being there either.

There was a lot of shit he didn't do without Richie Tozier. He seemed to bring out the worst (best?) in him.

Eddie stuck his hands in his pockets and pulled out a handful of change. Two quarters, a dime, and nine pennies. His face fell immediately.

"I-I only have sixty-nine cents..." he said sadly.

Richie, of course, just smirked. Dirty, naughty mind... "You know what that means, right?"

He didn't see his face though. Good thing too, because Eddie always had to just put up with his best friend's bullshit.

"It means I don't have enough for chicken nuggets..."
